MARCH 2020

Psalm 22:1–2 (NRSV)

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

2 O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer; and by night, but find no rest.

From the Pastor

I learned this morning that the EYN church, the church of the Brethren in Nigeria, was attacked again Friday, Feb 21. I believe this building was the birthplace of the EYN movement. Even though the church is crying out for help, the government seems to ignore the calls.

The Psalm above is the verse Jesus mentioned from the cross. We cannot imagine the pain he had during his separation from God. Sometimes we may also feel separation, but be assured, God will never leave or forsake us. Pray that those who feel so, will begin to feel His comfort. Pastor Ken
